This course is a combination of units taught in the trimester study period where you self-enrol, and credential units, which are a manual enrolment process.

Credentials have twelve entry points per year and access lasts for six months.

You can do the credentials at your own pace to fit in with work and personal commitments and to complete the course within your desired timeframe.

We have provided a recommended sequence that will allow you to move through the course.

Credentials usually take 2-4 weeks to prepare and submit and up to 5 weeks for video testimony, assessment and result.

You can withdraw from credential units before the census date.

It is possible to exit from this degree with a Graduate Certificate of Leadership.
