A768 COURSE RULES

To qualify for the award of Master of Cultural Heritage and Museum Studies, a student must complete 8 credit points as follows:

- 2 credit points of compulsory core units
- AAI018 Academic Integrity (0-credit-point compulsory unit)
- 6 credit points of study from one of the Minor Thesis, Research paper, or Professional Experience Pathways. Course Elective units may be used to form a Specialisation. *

* Course electives may be used to form a specialisation in either Collections and Curatorship or Heritage Practice of 4 credit points.

Notes

GENERAL INFORMATION

This course map is a guide only. You must also ensure you meet the course rules and structure as set out in the official University Handbook of the year you commenced your course. This course map has been created to be used electronically.

Not all units are available in all study periods or mode of delivery.

- Full time study is typically three to four units (or credit points) each study period.
- Part time study is typically one to two units (or credit points) each study period – part time study will extend the duration of your studies.
- Trimester 3 is typically an optional study period - unless it's your first study period and/or a compulsory study period for your course.

Unit options can be found in the 'Advanced Unit Search' in the most current year's University Handbook.

If you have applied for or received credit for units as recognition of prior learning (RPL), it may alter the units you need to study.

Please seek advice from a Student Adviser in StudentCentral if you have any queries or need help understanding your course structure and unit options.
