Curate your future career

By studying humanities and social sciences, you will better understand yourself and what you stand for. Design your own learning and future career by combining specific majors and minors – from international relations and journalism to design thinking and performing arts, strategic advertising and history to sport journalism and web design. As you nurture your passion, you will dive deep into your practice and be fully supported on your journey towards your future career. You will not just talk about ideas; you will learn by doing and discover how to put them into action. You will engage with the community and industry through individually tailored work placement and networking opportunities, allowing you to develop leadership skills and the entrepreneurial mindset to make your mark in a career you love.
