A743 course rules - In order to qualify for the award of Master of Communication (A743), students must complete 16 credit points, which must include the following:

AAI018 Academic Integrity (0-credit-point compulsory unit) plus;

Core Communication Program (4 credit points)

ACX701 Communication Concepts (2 credit points)

ACX702 Applied Research Methods for Communication (2 credit points)

Specialisation (8 credit points)

four one-credit-point specialisation-specific units selected from one only of five specialisations (Digital Media; Journalism; Public Relations; Television Production; or Visual Communication); and a four-credit-point professional capstone program including a mandatory research project whose topic is relevant to that specialisation – Option A: ACX703, ACX707, ACX708 and ACC700 or an elective related to the research project where no appropriate internship is available.

Electives (4 credit points)

Students select 4 credit points of electives from any specialisation in the course to create a distinctive degree to advance their professional careers and/or extend their academic knowledge in related areas. Students may complete up to two electives from any equivalent postgraduate course at Deakin University.

Students seeking PRIA accreditation for their degree must complete at least two credit points of electives using ALR-coded units, unless advised otherwise.

GENERAL INFORMATION

This course map is a guide only. You must, in addition to using this map, ensure you meet the course rules and structure as set out in the official University Handbook - of the year you commenced your course (deakin.edu.au/handbook). This course map has been created to be used electronically.

A typical enrolment pattern for full time study is three to four units (or credit points) each study period. A typical enrolment pattern for part time study is one to two units (or credit points) each study period, which in turn will extend the duration of your studies. The need or option to study in Trimester 3 is dependent on your course rules and structure.

Each year's unit offerings options can be found via 'Advanced Unit Search' in the most current year's Handbook.

If you have applied for or received credit for units as recognition of your prior learning (RPL), it may alter your course pattern and the units you need to undertake.

Please seek advice from a Student Adviser in StudentCentral if you have any queries or need help understanding your course structure and unit choices.
