** Unit also available in Trimester 2

^Assumed knowledge: SLE133 Chemistry in our World or high achievement in VCE Chemistry 3 and 4 (or equivalent).

Note: Some units have a co-requisite unit, which means the co-requisite unit must have already been completed or will be completed in the same study period as the credit point unit. A co-requisite unit only needs to be completed once in your degree For example: HSE102 Functional Human Anatomy has a co-requisite unit of HSE010 Exercise and Sport Laboratory Safety. HSN104 The Science of Food has a co-requisite unit of HSN010 Food and Nutrition Laboratory Safety. SLE133 Chemistry in our World has a co-requisite of SLE010 Laboratory and Fieldwork Safety Induction Program.

Students who are seeking Recognition of prior learning based on non-formal studies (eg. work experience) and wish to apply for ESSA professional accreditation please refer to Professional Recognition section in the course handbook.

Students who are planning on applying for Master of Dietetics course in future: Completing units at other institutions, instead of the approved H718 dietetic pre-requisites units at Deakin is strongly discouraged (even if previously approved as equivalent) as we cannot guarantee that they will be eligible for dietetics, even if Recognition for Prior Learning is granted.

GENERAL INFORMATION

This course map is a guide only. You must also ensure you meet the course rules and structure as set out in the official University Handbook of the year you commenced your course. This course map has been created to be used electronically.

Not all units are available in all study periods or mode of delivery.

- Full time study is typically three to four units (or credit points) each study period.
- Part time study is typically one to two units (or credit points) each study period – part time study will extend the duration of your studies.
- Trimester 3 is typically an optional study period - unless it's your first study period and/or a compulsory study period for your course.

Unit options can be found in the 'Advanced Unit Search' in the most current year's University Handbook.

If you have applied for or received credit for units as recognition of prior learning (RPL), it may alter the units you need to study.

Please seek advice from a Student Adviser in StudentCentral if you have any queries or need help understanding your course structure and unit options.
